MORE DISPLAYS

SEPTEMBER 11

- It's important to share these books and photos with our community every year and never forget how our world changed that terrible day.

ARIZONA SOUTHWEST SECTION

- We added new labels which make for easier searching and highlight not only White Mountain history and people, but Arizona Authors and stories with Arizona roots.

Spotlight on Friends of the Library

Friends of the Library completed the fourth and final book sale of the summer. They have raised well over $1000.00 through these sales. It involves many volunteers who work to prepare and run the sales and we appreciate all their efforts on behalf of the library.

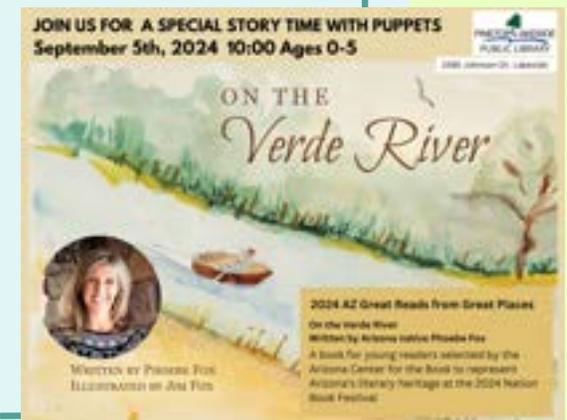

They are busy preparing now for the Fall Festival Parade, and then the Santa's Workshop event in December. It was such a success last year they are moving it to the White Mountain Nature Center so more people can attend.

Arizona Author Visit - Phoebe Fox

Her book, On the Verde River was chosen as the Great Reads from Great Places by the AZ State Library stopped by for a special visit on Sept 5. Her story time outside on the beautiful lawn was well attended by local families. We have added a copy of all her books to the collection recently.

FROM THE DESK OF BESSIE , LIBRARY TECHNICIAN

One of the biggest changes from Sirsi to Polaris is the way that we search through our records. This is a much more efficient way for staff to help patrons do multiple things all at once, like checking out items, placing holds, or seeing what blocks they may be affected by. As cataloger, the new search system reduces the number of windows I need to open at a time from at least three windows down to just one.

FROM THE DESK OF MARK , LEAD CIRCULATION CLERK

Polaris is going to make things easier for searching for items in all county libraries . This is a huge benefit to staff and patrons who frequently need help in locating a title they can't find at our library. In Polaris we can easily run reports to improve collection management of long overdue or lost books.
